Day 1: Friday, November 30

We'll motorcoach to the Amtrak Station in Sacramento, where we'll hop aboard the California Zephyr heading to Reno, Nevada—traveling by train can be a wonderful way to experience the beautiful Sierra Nevada Mountains. When we arrive at the Reno station, our motorcoach will transfer us to the Silver Legacy Hotel & Casino, where we'll enjoy a dinner buffet before attending The Ethan Bortnick show. Guinness world records have recently certified Ethan as the World's Youngest Solo Musician to headline his own tour. Ethan has headlined over 100 shows across the globe, drawing rave reviews from audiences and the media alike. He has appeared four times on "The Tonight Show with Jay Leno" and has been featured on: "Good Morning America" (twice), "Access Hollywood," "Inside Edition," "Martha Stewart" and "Oprah" (twice). As part of Oprah's

Day 2: Saturday, December 1

Partake of a morning buffet breakfast, have some time for gambling and lunch on your own before we depart the hotel for home via motorcoach. Along the way, we'll stop in the Sacramento area to stretch our legs before completing our journey to the Sunnyvale Senior Center.
